

The strong hand takes the rudder

Hi,
the Lord gave me this message...
"my strong hand takes the rudder - on your life and your world."

This is the message from the Lord, for You, and for all the children of God.

While praying this morning, I received a message from the Lord, which I am to pass on, as follows:

Thus says the Lord: "My children, you are up against insecure and difficult times. Fear and darkness loom ahead of you. Dark clouds are looming on the horizon. Great and mighty storms are about to shake the world. But I assure you my children; I will not leave you, even for a moment. It will shake you too. Even you will not be spared. But with my help and strength, you will survive all the crises, if you follow my instructions.

The afflictions that would overwhelm and destroy you will not prevail over you. I will ensure that. For I, the Lord am your shield, and remain your protection. I am your strong armour. I will take every attack of the hell for you.

You can do nothing to ward off these storms. I therefore place myself between you and the storms, and calm it for you, so that there will be no damage done you. It would just bounce off me. It will only pass by you like a mighty thunderstorm, like a great thunder.

My children take heed! I will bring you to my safety just at the right time. I will gather you under my wings, and take you into my care. I will free you from all your ballast, right on time. I am taking the rudder out of your hand. Do not be afraid when one thing or the other is taken from you; when one thing or the other separates itself from you. I am freeing you from every unnecessary ballast, from difficult people, and wrong paths from everything that will only serve as problems and distress for you during these great times of crises.

Just like the dry leaves are blown away by the autumn wind, so will everything that is unnecessary, fall off you during this period. The storms are a work of my Spirit. I am preparing my church for myself

And thus says the Lord, "Heed my instructions, and follow my directions. Listen to that still small voice. I am like the shepherd, who is now bringing his fold into safety in these dangerous times.

What you now see happening in the world, and amongst my people is nothing more than a "moving away" of the flock from the mountains. Things have changed. We are in a new era. The hard cold winter breaks forth. You, my sheep, cannot survive the winter up there on the mountains. That is why I am bringing you down from the sparse, dangerous heights into the valley, where you can have enough good pasture land, and live in safety. I am bringing you down to a stable and healthy plane, where you can survive well, and have everything that you need. Your well-being is the desire of my heart", says the Lord.

Thus says the Lord, "Do not be afraid when you now have to go through some very bottlenecks. I am very familiar with the path you have to take", says the Lord. "I have already led other of my children through this path before you; and they arrived at their hidden destination (hidden by me) in safety. I will ensure that no danger befalls you. Even when things become very tight (difficult), my angels will accompany and help you.

Neither set your eyes on the precipices (gulfs/chasms) nor on the threatening danger. Only concentrate on the way you are supposed to go, through which I am leading you.

There will be places (on the way) where things will be very very tight (difficult) where every one of you must force your way and yourselves along, and you will have to do it all alone. At that point, there is no other way for me to bring you into safety but by this very narrow path. But you will make it my children. My Spirit will help you.

Even when things with you are going obviously downhill, enter into my secret place, in the place of safety, where I will gather you in my stable, where you will also stay through the winter, the cold, the storms and the times of dryness, in the times where nothing grows outside anymore, in those sparse times.

I will provide for you, and that from the supplies which I had gathered and stored up for you in the summer, while you were on the mountains grazing.

Even when you no longer have the beautiful green juicy mountain meadows and the beautiful mountain breeze, you still have everything you need to sustain you through the winter.

Do not worry about your future. Remember you are my sheep, my people, my children!” says the Lord. I have already prepared everything as well as provided for you. At the destination that I have planned for you to arrive at, and in the situation into which I am bringing you, everything is already prepared for you; my blessings, my care, welfare, help, salvation and healing already await you. I know you do not yet see the solutions before you, but you will see my help, and my wonderful salvation, after you have arrived at that place, where I want you to be.

And while writing these lines, the Lord said I should give you a tip, that you should read Genesis 22: 7-14. This story is your story at the moment. You are placing your most precious thing, your promise, your Isaac on the altar, practically everything that you have asked of me; everything that you have believed me for, you are willing to give back to me, to sacrifice, that is.

* I have seen your willingness.

* I have seen your heavy heart and your sorrow.

It seems as if your whole world has collapsed before you.
You are speechless, and do not understand me any longer, in your present situation.
You are also not able to speak to anyone about this anymore.

“Listen, my children”, says the Lord. “The wonder of mount Moriahis about to repeat itself in your case. You will experience the same wonder experienced by Abraham and Isaac” says the Lord.

Trust your heavenly father just as Isaac followed and trusted his father.
All things are already provided for you.
God’s wonder already awaits you.

You will receive further promises, blessings and directions from me as you continue to obey me.
I will also continue to endorse you, and my blessings will break forth in your life. Continue in the path that I have instructed you to follow, even though it looks like a particularly difficult one at the moment, and every step in that direction brings you more and more distress and doubt.
Do not give up! At the peak of your efforts, my wonders await you, which I have prepared and hung up for you on brushwood (abbranch)
Genesis 22:7-14.

Be certain of this my child: My riches will fulfil every need. I now take you into my care. Be my guest from now on, and live at my expense, from my fullness, says the Lord “Further” says the Lord, “do all that I command you, and leave off those things I have not asked you to do. You will experience my miracle of provision, when you follow me fearlessly.

Even though your hands are quite empty at the moment and you do not know how to proceed or which way to go, or even when all this will end, I the Lord have already provided for you, say the Lord.

Write me a few lines. I would like to pray for you, and bring your name to God’s throne.

With very warm greetings.

Please circulate this word of encouragement to other children of God.
Send it to your friends. When you encourage them through these lines,
God, himself, will also encourage you.

And he said to me, “my child, whoever serves me, will not be affected by the plagues of Egypt, because I will pass over him/her.
I will not even allow a strand of his/her head to be ruffled..
